

Arizona and Immigration: The Facts

466,000 people in Arizona live with at least one unauthorized family member.

In Arizona, unauthorized immigrants contribute $213.6 million annually in state and local taxes.

227,000 children in Arizona live with at least one unauthorized family member.

To date, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) has allowed more than 27,000 young people, in Arizona alone, a reprieve from deportation and to receive a renewable work permit.

Arizona would lose $8.3 billion in annual GDP under a policy of mass deportation of unauthorized immigrant workers.

Ending DACA would cost the state $1.3 billion in GDP annually.

Sources:

State-by-State Estimates of the Family Members of Unauthorized Immigrants: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/>

Removing Unauthorized Workers Harms States and Industries Across the Country: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2016/09/21/143408/removing-unauthorized-workers-harms-states-and-industries-across-the-country/>

Undocumented Immigrants' State and Local Tax Contributions: <http://www.itep.org/immigration/>

Arkansas and Immigration: The Facts

86,000 individuals in Arkansas live with at least one unauthorized family member.

In Arkansas, unauthorized immigrants contribute $58.6 million annually in state and local taxes.

41,000 children in the state of Arkansas live with at least one unauthorized family member.

To date, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) has allowed more than 5,000 young people, in Arkansas alone, a reprieve from deportation and to receive a renewable work permit.

Arkansas would lose $1.8 billion in annual GDP under a policy of mass deportation of unauthorized immigrant workers.

Ending DACA would cost the state $231.4 million in GDP annually.

Sources:

State-by-State Estimates of the Family Members of Unauthorized Immigrants: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/>

Removing Unauthorized Workers Harms States and Industries Across the Country: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2016/09/21/143408/removing-unauthorized-workers-harms-states-and-industries-across-the-country/>

Undocumented Immigrants' State and Local Tax Contributions: <http://www.itep.org/immigration/>

Ending DACA Will Cost States Billions of Dollars: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2017/01/09/296125/ending-daca-will-cost-states-billions-of-dollars/>

California and Immigration: The Facts

4.7 million Californians live with at least one unauthorized family member.

In California, unauthorized immigrants contribute $3.12 billion annually in state and local taxes.

2 million children in California live with at least one unauthorized family member.

To date, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) has allowed more than 216,000 young people, in California alone, a reprieve from deportation and to receive a renewable work permit.

California would lose $103.3 billion in annual GDP under a policy of mass deportation of unauthorized immigrant workers.

Ending DACA would cost the state $11.3 billion in GDP annually.

Sources:

State-by-State Estimates of the Family Members of Unauthorized Immigrants: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/>

Removing Unauthorized Workers Harms States and Industries Across the Country: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2016/09/21/143408/removing-unauthorized-workers-harms-states-and-industries-across-the-country/>

Undocumented Immigrants' State and Local Tax Contributions: <http://www.itep.org/immigration/>

Colorado and Immigration: The Facts

277,000 people in Colorado live with at least one unauthorized family member.

In Colorado, unauthorized immigrants contribute $139.5 million annually in state and local taxes.

131,000 children in Colorado live with at least one unauthorized family member.

To date, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) has allowed nearly 17,000 young people, in Colorado alone, a reprieve from deportation and to receive a renewable work permit.

Colorado would lose $6.1 billion in annual GDP under a policy of mass deportation of unauthorized immigrant workers.

Ending DACA would cost the state $839.3 million in GDP annually.

Sources:

State-by-State Estimates of the Family Members of Unauthorized Immigrants: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/>

Removing Unauthorized Workers Harms States and Industries Across the Country: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2016/09/21/143408/removing-unauthorized-workers-harms-states-and-industries-across-the-country/>

Undocumented Immigrants' State and Local Tax Contributions: <http://www.itep.org/immigration/>

Florida and Immigration: The Facts

909,000 people in Florida live with at least one unauthorized family member.

In Florida, unauthorized immigrants contribute $598.7 million annually in state and local taxes.

358,000 children in Florida live with at least one unauthorized family member.

To date, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) has allowed more than 30,000 young people, in Florida alone, a reprieve from deportation and to receive a renewable work permit.

Florida would lose $24.8 billion in annual GDP under a policy of mass deportation of unauthorized immigrant workers.

Ending DACA would cost the state $1.4 billion in GDP annually.

Sources:

State-by-State Estimates of the Family Members of Unauthorized Immigrants: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/>

Removing Unauthorized Workers Harms States and Industries Across the Country: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2016/09/21/143408/removing-unauthorized-workers-harms-states-and-industries-across-the-country/>

Undocumented Immigrants' State and Local Tax Contributions: <http://www.itep.org/immigration/>

Kentucky and Immigration: The Facts

56,000 people in Kentucky live with at least one unauthorized family member.

In Kentucky, unauthorized immigrants contribute $36.6 million annually in state and local taxes.

27,000 children in Kentucky live with at least one unauthorized family member.

To date, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) has allowed nearly 3,000 young people, in Kentucky alone, a reprieve from deportation and to receive a renewable work permit.

Kentucky would lose $1.5 billion in annual GDP under a policy of mass deportation of unauthorized immigrant workers.

Ending DACA would cost the state $151.3 million in GDP annually.

Sources:

State-by-State Estimates of the Family Members of Unauthorized Immigrants: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/>

Removing Unauthorized Workers Harms States and Industries Across the Country: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2016/09/21/143408/removing-unauthorized-workers-harms-states-and-industries-across-the-country/>

Undocumented Immigrants' State and Local Tax Contributions: <http://www.itep.org/immigration/>

Maine and Immigration: The Facts

5,000 people in Maine live with at least one unauthorized family member.

In Maine, unauthorized immigrants contribute $4.4 million annually in state and local taxes.

2,000 children in Maine live with at least one unauthorized family member.

To date, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) has allowed more than 50 young people, in Maine alone, a reprieve from deportation and to receive a renewable work permit.

Maine would lose $48 million in annual GDP under a policy of mass deportation of unauthorized immigrant workers.

Ending DACA would cost the state $2.1 million in GDP annually.

Sources:

State-by-State Estimates of the Family Members of Unauthorized Immigrants: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/>

Removing Unauthorized Workers Harms States and Industries Across the Country: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2016/09/21/143408/removing-unauthorized-workers-harms-states-and-industries-across-the-country/>

Undocumented Immigrants' State and Local Tax Contributions: <http://www.itep.org/immigration/>

Mississippi and Immigration: The Facts

27,000 people in Mississippi live with at least one unauthorized family member.

In Mississippi, unauthorized immigrants contribute $22.7 million annually in state and local taxes.

12,000 children in Mississippi live with at least one unauthorized family member.

To date, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) has allowed more than 1,400 young people, in Mississippi alone, a reprieve from deportation and to receive a renewable work permit.

Maine would lose $638 million in annual GDP under a policy of mass deportation of unauthorized immigrant workers.

Ending DACA would cost the state $60.5 million in GDP annually.

Sources:

State-by-State Estimates of the Family Members of Unauthorized Immigrants: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/>

Removing Unauthorized Workers Harms States and Industries Across the Country: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2016/09/21/143408/removing-unauthorized-workers-harms-states-and-industries-across-the-country/>

Undocumented Immigrants' State and Local Tax Contributions: <http://www.itep.org/immigration/>

Nebraska and Immigration: The Facts

65,000 people in Nebraska live with at least one unauthorized family member.

In Nebraska, unauthorized immigrants contribute $398 million annually in state and local taxes.

31,000 children in Nebraska live with at least one unauthorized family member.

To date, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) has allowed more than 3,000 young people, in Nebraska alone, a reprieve from deportation and to receive a renewable work permit.

Nebraska would lose $1.4 billion in annual GDP under a policy of mass deportation of unauthorized immigrant workers.

Ending DACA would cost the state $146 million in GDP annually.

Sources:

State-by-State Estimates of the Family Members of Unauthorized Immigrants: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/>

Removing Unauthorized Workers Harms States and Industries Across the Country: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2016/09/21/143408/removing-unauthorized-workers-harms-states-and-industries-across-the-country/>

Undocumented Immigrants' State and Local Tax Contributions: <http://www.itep.org/immigration/>

Nevada and Immigration: The Facts

254,000 people in Nevada live with at least one unauthorized family member.

In Nevada, unauthorized immigrants contribute $86.1 million annually in state and local taxes.

112,000 children in Nevada live with at least one unauthorized family member.

To date, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) has allowed nearly, 13,000 young people, in Nevada alone, a reprieve from deportation and to receive a renewable work permit.

Nevada would lose $5.7 billion in annual GDP under a policy of mass deportation of unauthorized immigrant workers.

Ending DACA would cost the state $585.1 million in GDP annually.

Sources:

State-by-State Estimates of the Family Members of Unauthorized Immigrants: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/>

Removing Unauthorized Workers Harms States and Industries Across the Country: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2016/09/21/143408/removing-unauthorized-workers-harms-states-and-industries-across-the-country/>

Undocumented Immigrants' State and Local Tax Contributions: <http://www.itep.org/immigration/>

New Jersey and Immigration: The Facts

605,000 people in New Jersey live with at least one unauthorized family member.

In New Jersey, unauthorized immigrants contribute $587.4 million annually in state and local taxes.

231,000 children in New Jersey live with at least one unauthorized family member.

To date, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) has allowed nearly, 21,000 young people, in New Jersey alone, a reprieve from deportation and to receive a renewable work permit.

New Jersey would lose $25.9 billion in annual GDP under a policy of mass deportation of unauthorized immigrant workers.

Ending DACA would cost the state $1.5 billion in GDP annually.

Sources:

State-by-State Estimates of the Family Members of Unauthorized Immigrants: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/>

Removing Unauthorized Workers Harms States and Industries Across the Country: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2016/09/21/143408/removing-unauthorized-workers-harms-states-and-industries-across-the-country/>

Undocumented Immigrants' State and Local Tax Contributions: <http://www.itep.org/immigration/>

Pennsylvania and Immigration: The Facts

195,000 people in Pennsylvania live with at least one unauthorized family member.

In Pennsylvania, unauthorized immigrants contribute $134.9 million annually in state and local taxes.

77,000 children in Pennsylvania live with at least one unauthorized family member.

To date, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) has allowed more than, 5,000 young people, in Pennsylvania alone, a reprieve from deportation and to receive a renewable work permit.

Pennsylvania would lose $6.4 billion in annual GDP under a policy of mass deportation of unauthorized immigrant workers.

Ending DACA would cost the state $323.2 million in GDP annually.

Sources:

State-by-State Estimates of the Family Members of Unauthorized Immigrants: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/>

Removing Unauthorized Workers Harms States and Industries Across the Country: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2016/09/21/143408/removing-unauthorized-workers-harms-states-and-industries-across-the-country/>

Undocumented Immigrants' State and Local Tax Contributions: <http://www.itep.org/immigration/>

South Carolina and Immigration: The Facts

108,000 people in South Carolina live with at least one unauthorized family member.

In South Carolina, unauthorized immigrants contribute $67.8 million annually in state and local taxes.

49,000 children in South Carolina live with at least one unauthorized family member.

To date, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) has allowed more than 6,000 young people, in South Carolina alone, a reprieve from deportation and to receive a renewable work permit.

South Carolina would lose $2.6 billion in annual GDP under a policy of mass deportation of unauthorized immigrant workers.

Ending DACA would cost the state $247.1 million in GDP annually.

Sources:

State-by-State Estimates of the Family Members of Unauthorized Immigrants: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/>

Removing Unauthorized Workers Harms States and Industries Across the Country: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2016/09/21/143408/removing-unauthorized-workers-harms-states-and-industries-across-the-country/>

Undocumented Immigrants' State and Local Tax Contributions: <http://www.itep.org/immigration/>

Tennessee and Immigration: The Facts

152,000 people in Tennessee live with at least one unauthorized family member.

In Tennessee, unauthorized immigrants contribute $107.5 million annually in state and local taxes.

71,000 children in the state of Tennessee live with at least one unauthorized family member.

To date, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) has allowed more than 8,000 young people, in Tennessee alone, a reprieve from deportation and to receive a renewable work permit.

Tennessee would lose $3.3 billion in annual GDP under a policy of mass deportation of unauthorized immigrant workers.

Ending DACA would cost the state $338.1 million in GDP annually.

Sources:

State-by-State Estimates of the Family Members of Unauthorized Immigrants: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/>

Removing Unauthorized Workers Harms States and Industries Across the Country: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2016/09/21/143408/removing-unauthorized-workers-harms-states-and-industries-across-the-country/>

Undocumented Immigrants' State and Local Tax Contributions: <http://www.itep.org/immigration/>

Texas and Immigration: The Facts

2.7 million Texans live with at least one unauthorized family member.

In Texas, unauthorized immigrants contribute $1.5 billion annually in state and local taxes.

1.2 million children in the state of Texas live with at least one unauthorized family member.

To date, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) has allowed more than 121,000 young people, in Texas alone, a reprieve from deportation and to receive a renewable work permit.

Texas would lose $60 billion in annual GDP under a policy of mass deportation of unauthorized immigrant workers.

Ending DACA would cost the state $6.1 billion in GDP annually.

Sources:

State-by-State Estimates of the Family Members of Unauthorized Immigrants: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/>

Removing Unauthorized Workers Harms States and Industries Across the Country: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2016/09/21/143408/removing-unauthorized-workers-harms-states-and-industries-across-the-country/>

Undocumented Immigrants' State and Local Tax Contributions: <http://www.itep.org/immigration/>

Ending DACA Will Cost States Billions of Dollars: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2017/01/09/296125/ending-daca-will-cost-states-billions-of-dollars/>

Utah and Immigration: The Facts

141,000 people in Utah live with at least one unauthorized family member.

In Utah, unauthorized immigrants contribute $69.8 million annually in state and local taxes.

67,000 children in the state of Utah live with at least one unauthorized family member.

To date, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) has allowed nearly 10,000 young people, in Utah alone, a reprieve from deportation and to receive a renewable work permit.

Utah would lose $3.3 billion in annual GDP under a policy of mass deportation of unauthorized immigrant workers.

Ending DACA would cost the state $469.2 million in GDP annually.

Sources:

State-by-State Estimates of the Family Members of Unauthorized Immigrants: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/>

Removing Unauthorized Workers Harms States and Industries Across the Country: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2016/09/21/143408/removing-unauthorized-workers-harms-states-and-industries-across-the-country/>

Undocumented Immigrants' State and Local Tax Contributions: <http://www.itep.org/immigration/>

Virginia and Immigration: The Facts

326,000 people in Virginia live with at least one unauthorized family member.

In Virginia, unauthorized immigrants contribute $256 million annually in state and local taxes.

128,000 children in the state of Virginia live with at least one unauthorized family member.

To date, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) has allowed nearly 12,000 young people, in Virginia alone, to receive reprieve from deportation and a renewable work permit.

Virginia would lose $11.9 billion in annual GDP under a policy of mass deportation of unauthorized immigrant workers.

Ending DACA would cost the state $676 million in GDP annually.

Sources:

State-by-State Estimates of the Family Members of Unauthorized Immigrants: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/>

Removing Unauthorized Workers Harms States and Industries Across the Country: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2016/09/21/143408/removing-unauthorized-workers-harms-states-and-industries-across-the-country/>

Undocumented Immigrants' State and Local Tax Contributions: <http://www.itep.org/immigration/>

Wisconsin and Immigration: The Facts

116,000 people in Wisconsin live with at least one unauthorized family member.

In Wisconsin, unauthorized immigrants contribute $71.8 million annually in state and local taxes.

54,000 children in the state of Wisconsin live with at least one unauthorized family member.

To date, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) has allowed more than 7,000 young people, in Wisconsin alone, a reprieve from deportation and to receive a renewable work permit.

Wisconsin would lose $3.4 billion in annual GDP under a policy of mass deportation of unauthorized immigrant workers.

Ending DACA would cost the state $417.8 million in GDP annually.

Sources:

State-by-State Estimates of the Family Members of Unauthorized Immigrants: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/>

Removing Unauthorized Workers Harms States and Industries Across the Country: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2016/09/21/143408/removing-unauthorized-workers-harms-states-and-industries-across-the-country/>

Undocumented Immigrants' State and Local Tax Contributions: <http://www.itep.org/immigration/>

Wyoming and Immigration: The Facts

8,000 people in Wyoming live with at least one unauthorized family member.

In Wyoming, unauthorized immigrants contribute $4.2 million annually in state and local taxes.

5,000 children in the state of Wyoming live with at least one unauthorized family member.

To date, Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals (DACA) has allowed more than 600 young people, in Wyoming alone, a reprieve from deportation and to receive a renewable work permit.

Wyoming would lose $217 million in annual GDP under a policy of mass deportation of unauthorized immigrant workers.

Ending DACA would cost the state $38.2 million in GDP annually.

Sources:

State-by-State Estimates of the Family Members of Unauthorized Immigrants: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/news/2017/03/16/427868/state-state-estimates-family-members-unauthorized-immigrants/>

Removing Unauthorized Workers Harms States and Industries Across the Country: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2016/09/21/143408/removing-unauthorized-workers-harms-states-and-industries-across-the-country/>

Undocumented Immigrants' State and Local Tax Contributions: <http://www.itcp.org/immigration/>

Ending DACA Will Cost States Billions of Dollars: <https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/immigration/news/2017/01/09/296125/ending-daca-will-cost-states-billions-of->